LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 940, as amended, Jackson. California Conservatorship Jurisdiction Act.

The Guardianship-Conservatorship Law generally establishes the standards and procedures for the appointment and termination of an appointment for a guardian or conservator of a person, an estate, or both. The law specifically requires, before the appointment of either a guardian or conservator is effective, the prospective guardian or conservator to take an oath to perform these duties according to the law.

This bill would enact, operative January 1, 2016, except as specified, the California Conservatorship Jurisdiction Act which is intended to be a modified version of the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act. This bill would provide standards and procedures for establishing the proper jurisdiction for a proceeding to appoint a conservator of a person, an estate, or both. The bill would also establish conditions for the transfer of a conservatorship established within this state to a jurisdiction outside the state, and a transfer of a conservatorship into this state, and for the registration and recognition by this state of a conservatorship established by another state, a United States territory, a federally recognized Indian tribe, or other specified jurisdiction. This bill would establish rules relating to the appeals from orders made under the California Conservatorship Jurisdiction Act. This bill would authorize a $30 charge for registering a conservatorship established outside this state to be deposited into the Trial Court Trust Fund.

This bill would authorize a court in a conservatorship proceeding to make specific requests of a court of another jurisdiction to take certain actions relating to that proceeding, including, but not limited to, holding an evidentiary hearing or ordering a person to produce testimony, and would further authorize a court in this state to grant similar requests from a court of another jurisdiction. This bill would require the Judicial Council to develop court rules and forms to implement the provisions of this act on or before January 1, 2016.

This bill would modify, limit, and supersede specified portions of the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, as it relates to these provisions. This bill would also specify that the scope of the required oath obligates a guardian or conservator to comply with applicable laws, at all times, in any location within or without the state.

This bill would make conforming changes to related provisions.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

40 Section 2002. The conservatee shall attend the hearing unless the

1 conservatee's attendance is excused under Section 1825. The court
2 may take appropriate action in response to the court investigator's 3 report under this section.

4 (d) The court investigator's report under this section shall be 5 confidential as provided in Section 1851.

6 (e) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of 7 Section 1850, the court shall review the conservatorship again one 8 year after the review conducted pursuant to subdivision (c), and 9 annually thereafter, in the manner specified in Section 1850.

10 (f) The first time that the need for a conservatorship is 11 challenged by any interested person or raised on the court's own 12 motion after a transfer under Section 2002, whether in a review 13 pursuant to this section or in a petition to terminate the 14 conservatorship under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1860), 15 the court shall presume that there is no need for a conservatorship.
16 This presumption is rebuttable, but can only be overcome by clear 17 and convincing evidence. The court shall make an express finding 18 on whether continuation of the conservatorship is the least 19 restrictive alternative needed for the protection of the conservatee.

20 (g) If a duty described in this section is the same as a duty
21 imposed pursuant to the amendments to ~~Section 1826 or 1851~~ 22 Sections 1826, 1850, 1851, 2250, 2253, and 2620 and the addition 23 of Sections 2250.4 and 2250.6 enacted by Chapter 493 of the 24 Statutes of 2006, and the addition of Section 1051 enacted by 25 Chapter 492 of the Statutes of 2006, a superior court shall not be 26 required to perform that duty until the Legislature makes an 27 appropriation identified for this purpose.

28 SEC. 19. Section 1890 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

29 1890. (a) An order of the court under Section 1880 may be 30 included in the order of appointment of the conservator if the order 31 was requested in the petition for the appointment of the conservator 32 or the transfer petition under Section 2002 or, except in the case 33 of a limited conservator, may be made subsequently upon a petition 34 made, noticed, and heard by the court in the manner provided in 35 this article.

36 (b) In the case of a petition filed under this chapter requesting 37 that the court make an order under this chapter or that the court 38 modify or revoke an order made under this chapter, when the order 39 applies to a limited conservatee, the order may only be made upon 40 a petition made, noticed, and heard by the court in the manner

provided by Article 3 (commencing with Section 1820) of Chapter 1.

(c) No court order under Section 1880, whether issued as part of an order granting the original petition for appointment of a conservator or issued subsequent thereto, may be granted unless supported by a declaration, filed at or before the hearing on the request, executed by a licensed physician, or a licensed psychologist within the scope of his or her licensure, and stating that the proposed conservatee or the conservatee, as the case may be, lacks the capacity to give an informed consent for any form of medical treatment and the reasons therefor. Nothing in this section shall be construed to expand the scope of practice of psychologists as set forth in the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 20. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1980) is added to Part 3 of Division 4 of the Probate Code, to read:

9 1983. A court of this state may treat a foreign country as if it 10 were a state for the purpose of applying this article and Articles 11 2, 3, and 5.

12 1984. (a) A court of this state may communicate with a court 13 in another state concerning a proceeding arising under this chapter.
14 The court may allow the parties to participate in the 24 designating an appropriate location for the deposition or testimony.

25 26 Article 2. Jurisdiction 27

28 1991. (a) In this article:

29 (1) “Emergency” means a circumstance that likely will result 30 in substantial harm to a proposed conservatee’s health, safety, or 31 welfare, and for which the appointment of a conservator of the 32 person is necessary because no other person has authority and is 33 willing to act on behalf of the proposed conservatee.

34 (2) “Home state” means the state in which the proposed 35 conservatee was physically present, including any period of 36 temporary absence, for at least six consecutive months immediately 37 before the filing of a petition for a conservatorship order, or, if 38 none, the state in which the proposed conservatee was physically 39 present, including any period of temporary absence, for at least

1 six consecutive months ending within the six months prior to the 2 filing of the petition.

3 (3) “Significant-connection state” means a state, other than the 4 home state, with which a proposed conservatee has a significant 5 connection other than mere physical presence and in which 6 substantial evidence concerning the proposed conservatee is 7 available.

8 (b) In determining under Section 1993 and subdivision (e) of 9 Section 2001 whether a proposed conservatee has a significant 10 connection with a particular state, the court shall consider all of 11 the following:

12 (1) The location of the proposed conservatee’s family and other 13 persons required to be notified of the conservatorship proceeding.

14 (2) The length of time the proposed conservatee at any time was 15 physically present in the state and the duration of any absence.

16 (3) The location of the proposed conservatee’s property.

17 (4) The extent to which the proposed conservatee has ties to the 18 state such as voting registration, state or local tax return filing, 19 vehicle registration, driver’s license, social relationship, and receipt 20 of services.

21 1992. For a conservatorship proceeding governed by this article, 22 this article provides the exclusive basis for determining whether 23 the courts of this state, as opposed to the courts of another state, 24 have jurisdiction to appoint a conservator of the person, a 25 conservator of the estate, or a conservator of the person and estate.

26 1993. (a) A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a 27 conservator for a proposed conservatee if this state is the proposed 28 conservatee’s home state.

29 (b) A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a conservator 30 for a proposed conservatee if, on the date the petition is filed, this 31 state is a significant-connection state and the respondent does not 32 have a home state.

33 (c) A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a conservator 34 for a proposed conservatee if, on the date the petition is filed, this 35 state is a significant-connection state and a court of the proposed 36 conservatee’s home state has expressly declined to exercise 37 jurisdiction because this state is a more appropriate forum.

38 (d) A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a conservator 39 for a proposed conservatee if both of the following conditions are 40 satisfied:

1 (1) On the date the petition is filed, this state is a 2 significant-connection state, the proposed conservatee has a home 3 state, and a conservatorship petition is not pending in a court of 4 the home state or another significant-connection state.

5 (2) Before the court makes the appointment, no conservatorship
6 petition is filed in the proposed conservatee's home state, no 7 objection to the court's jurisdiction is filed by a person required 8 to be notified of the proceeding, and the court in this state 9 concludes that it is an appropriate forum under the factors set forth 10 in Section 1996.

11 (e) A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a conservator 12 for a proposed conservatee if all of the following conditions are 13 satisfied:

14 (1) This state does not have jurisdiction under subdivision (a), 15 (b), (c), or (d).

16 (2) The proposed conservatee's home state and all 17 significant-connection states have expressly declined to exercise 18 jurisdiction because this state is the more appropriate forum.

19 (3) Jurisdiction in this state is consistent with the constitutions 20 of this state and the United States.

21 (f) A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a conservator 22 for a proposed conservatee if the requirements for special 23 jurisdiction under Section 1994 are met.

24 1994. (a) A court of this state lacking jurisdiction under 25 subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 1993 has special 26 jurisdiction to do any of the following:

27 (1) Appoint a temporary conservator of the person in an 28 emergency for a proposed conservatee who is physically present 29 in this state. In making an appointment under this paragraph, a
30 court shall follow the procedures specified in Chapter 3
31 (commencing with Section 2250) of Part 4. The temporary 32 conservatorship shall terminate in accordance with Section 2257.

33 (2) Appoint a conservator of the estate with respect to real or 34 tangible personal property located in this state.

35 (3) Appoint a conservator of the person, conservator of the 36 estate, or conservator of the person and estate for a proposed 37 conservatee for whom a provisional order to transfer a proceeding 38 from another state has been issued under procedures similar to 39 Section 2001. In making an appointment under this paragraph, a
40 court shall follow the procedures specified in Chapter 3

1 (commencing with Section 2250) of Part 4. The temporary
2 conservatorship shall terminate in accordance with Section 2257.

3 (b) If a petition for the appointment of a conservator of the 4 person in an emergency is brought in this state and this state was 5 not the home state of the proposed conservatee on the date the 6 petition was filed, the court shall dismiss the proceeding at the 7 request of the court of the home state, if any, whether dismissal is 8 requested before or after the emergency appointment of a temporary 9 conservator of the person.

10 1995. Except as otherwise provided in Section 1994, a court 11 that has appointed a conservator consistent with this chapter has 12 exclusive and continuing jurisdiction over the proceeding until it 13 is terminated by the court or the appointment expires by its own 14 terms.

15 1996. (a) (1) A court of this state having jurisdiction under 16 Section 1993 to appoint a conservator may decline to exercise its 17 jurisdiction if it determines at any time that a court of another state 18 is a more appropriate forum.

19 (2) The issue of appropriate forum may be raised upon petition 20 of any interested person, the court's own motion, or the request of 21 another court.

22 (3) The petitioner, or, if there is no petitioner, the court in this 23 state, shall give notice of the petition, motion, or request to the 24 same persons and in the same manner as for a petition for a 25 conservatorship under Section 1801. The notice shall state the 26 basis for the petition, motion, or request, and shall inform the 27 recipients of the date, time, and place of the hearing under 28 paragraph (4). The notice shall also advise the recipients that they 29 have a right to object to the petition, motion, or request. The notice 30 to the potential conservatee shall inform the potential conservatee 31 of the right to be represented by legal counsel if the potential 32 conservatee so chooses, and to have legal counsel appointed by 33 the court if the potential conservatee is unable to retain legal 34 counsel.

35 (4) The court shall hold a hearing on the petition, motion, or 36 request.

37 (b) If a court of this state declines to exercise its jurisdiction 38 under subdivision (a), it shall grant the petition, motion, or request, 39 and either dismiss or stay any conservatorship proceeding pending 40 in this state. The court's order shall be based on evidence presented

1 to the court. The order shall be in a record and shall expressly state 2 that the court declines to exercise its jurisdiction because a court
3 of another state is a more appropriate forum. The court may impose 4 any condition the court considers just and proper, including the 5 condition that a petition for the appointment of a conservator of 6 the person, conservator of the estate, or conservator of the person 7 and estate be filed promptly in another state.

8 (c) In determining whether it is an appropriate forum, the court 9 shall consider all relevant factors, including all of the following:

10 (1) Any expressed preference of the proposed conservatee.

11 (2) Whether abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the proposed 12 conservatee has occurred or is likely to occur and which state could 13 best protect the proposed conservatee from the abuse, neglect, or 14 exploitation.

15 (3) The length of time the proposed conservatee was physically 16 present in or was a legal resident of this or another state.

17 (4) The location of the proposed conservatee's family, friends,
18 and other persons required to be notified of the conservatorship
19 proceeding.

20 (5) The distance of the proposed conservatee from the court in 21 each state.

22 (6) The financial circumstances of the estate of the proposed 23 conservatee.

24 (7) The nature and location of the evidence.

25 (8) The ability of the court in each state to decide the issue
26 expeditiously and the procedures necessary to present evidence.

27 (9) The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and 28 issues in the proceeding.

29 (10) If an appointment were made, the court's ability to monitor 30 the conduct of the conservator.

31 1997. (a) If at any time a court of this state determines that it 32 acquired jurisdiction to appoint a conservator because of 33 unjustifiable conduct, the court may do any of the following:

34 (1) Decline to exercise jurisdiction.

35 (2) Exercise jurisdiction for the limited purpose of fashioning 36 an appropriate remedy to ensure the health, safety, and welfare of 37 the conservatee or proposed conservatee or the protection of the 38 property of the conservatee or proposed conservatee or to prevent 39 a repetition of the unjustifiable conduct, including staying the 40 proceeding until a petition for the appointment of a conservator

1 of the person, conservator of the estate, or conservator of the person 2 and estate is filed in a court of another state having jurisdiction.

3 (3) Continue to exercise jurisdiction after considering all of the 4 following:

5 (A) The extent to which the conservatee or proposed conservatee 6 and all persons required to be notified of the proceedings have 7 acquiesced in the exercise of the court's jurisdiction.

8 (B) Whether it is a more appropriate forum than the court of 9 any other state under the factors set forth in subdivision (c) of 10 Section 1996.

11 (C) Whether the court of any other state would have jurisdiction 12 under factual circumstances in substantial conformity with the 13 jurisdictional standards of Section 1993.

14 (b) If a court of this state determines that it acquired jurisdiction 15 to appoint a conservator because a party seeking to invoke its 16 jurisdiction engaged in unjustifiable conduct, it may assess against 17 that party necessary and reasonable expenses, including attorney's 18 fees, investigative fees, court costs, communication expenses, 19 medical examination expenses, witness fees and expenses, and 20 travel expenses. The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses 21 of any kind against this state or a governmental subdivision, 22 agency, or instrumentality of this state unless authorized by law 23 other than this chapter.

24 1998. If a petition for the appointment of a conservator of the 25 person, conservator of the estate, or conservator of the person and 26 estate is brought in this state and this state was not the home state 27 of the proposed conservatee on the date the petition was filed, in 28 addition to complying with the notice requirements of this state, 29 the petitioner shall give notice of the petition or of a hearing on 30 the petition to those persons who would be entitled to notice of 31 the petition or of a hearing on the petition if a proceeding were 32 brought in the home state of the proposed conservatee. The notice 33 shall be given in the same manner as notice is required to be given 34 in this state.

35 1999. Except for a petition for the appointment of a conservator 36 under paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 37 1994, if a petition for the appointment of a conservator is filed in 38 this state and in another state and neither petition has been 39 dismissed or withdrawn, the following rules apply:

1 (a) If the court in this state has jurisdiction under Section 1993, 2 it may proceed with the case unless a court in another state acquires 3 jurisdiction under provisions similar to Section 1993 before the 4 appointment.

5 (b) If the court in this state does not have jurisdiction under 6 Section 1993, whether at the time the petition is filed or at any 7 time before the appointment, the court shall stay the proceeding 8 and communicate with the court in the other state. If the court in 9 the other state has jurisdiction, the court in this state shall dismiss 10 the petition unless the court in the other state determines that the 11 court in this state is a more appropriate forum.
12

13 Article 3. Transfer of Conservatorship 14

15 2001. (a) A conservator appointed in this state may petition 16 the court to transfer the conservatorship to another state.

17 (b) The petitioner shall give notice of a hearing on a petition 18 under subdivision (a) to the persons that would be entitled to notice 19 of a hearing on a petition in this state for the appointment of a 20 conservator.

21 (c) The court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant 22 to subdivision (a).

23 (d) The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a 24 petition to transfer a conservatorship of the person, and shall direct 25 the conservator of the person to petition for acceptance of the 26 conservatorship in the other state, if the court is satisfied that the 27 conservatorship will be accepted by the court in the other state and 28 the court finds all of the following:

29 (1) The conservatee is physically present in or is reasonably 30 expected to move permanently to the other state.

31 (2) An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an 32 objection has been made, the court determines that the transfer 33 would not be contrary to the interests of the conservatee.

34 (3) Plans for care and services for the conservatee in the other 35 state are reasonable and sufficient.

36 (e) The court shall issue a provisional order granting a petition 37 to transfer a conservatorship of the estate, and shall direct the 38 conservator of the estate to petition for acceptance of the 39 conservatorship in the other state, if the court is satisfied that the

1 conservatorship will be accepted by the court of the other state 2 and the court finds all of the following:

3 (1) The conservatee is physically present in or is reasonably
4 expected to move permanently to the other state, or the conservatee 5 has a significant connection to the other state considering the 6 factors in subdivision (b) of Section 1991.

7 (2) An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an 8 objection has been made, the court determines that the transfer
9 would not be contrary to the interests of the conservatee.

10 (3) Adequate arrangements will be made for management of 11 the conservatee's property.

12 (f) The court shall issue a provisional order granting a petition 13 to transfer a conservatorship of the person and estate, and shall 14 direct the conservator to petition for acceptance of the 15 conservatorship in the other state, if the requirements of subdivision 16 (d) and the requirements of subdivision (e) are both satisfied.

17 (g) The court shall issue a final order confirming the transfer 18 and terminating the conservatorship upon its receipt of both of the 19 following:

20 (1) A provisional order accepting the proceeding from the court 21 to which the proceeding is to be transferred which is issued under 22 provisions similar to Section 2002.

23 (2) The documents required to terminate a conservatorship in 24 this state, including, but not limited to, any required accounting.

25 2002. (a) (1) To confirm transfer of a conservatorship
26 transferred to this state under provisions similar to Section 2001, 27 the conservator shall petition the court in this state to accept the 28 conservatorship.

29 (2) The petition shall include a certified copy of the other state's 30 provisional order of transfer.

31 (3) On the first page of the petition, the petitioner shall state 32 that the conservatorship does not fall within the limitations of 33 Section 1981. The body of the petition shall allege facts showing 34 that this chapter applies and the requirements for transfer of the 35 conservatorship are satisfied.

36 (4) The petition shall specify any modifications necessary to 37 conform the conservatorship to the law of this state, and the terms 38 of a proposed final order accepting the conservatorship.

39 (5) A petition for the appointment of a temporary conservator 40 under Section 1994 and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2250) of Part 4 may be filed while a petition under this section is pending. The petition for the appointment of a temporary conservator shall request the appointment of a temporary conservator eligible for appointment in this state, and shall be limited to powers authorized for a temporary conservator in this state. For purposes of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2250) of Part 4, the court shall treat a petition under this section as the equivalent of a petition for a general conservatorship.

(b) The petitioner shall give notice of a hearing on a petition under subdivision (a) to those persons that would be entitled to notice if the petition were a petition for the appointment of a conservator in both the transferring state and this state. The petitioner shall also give notice to any attorney of record for the conservatee in the transferring state and to any attorney appointed or appearing for the conservatee in this state. The petitioner shall give the notice in the same manner that notice of a petition for the appointment of a conservator is required to be given in this state, except that notice to the conservatee shall be given by mailing the petition instead of by personal service of a citation.

(c) Any person entitled to notice under subdivision (b) may object to the petition on one or more of the following grounds:

(1) Transfer of the proceeding would be contrary to the interests of the conservatee.

(2) Under the law of the transferring state, the conservator is ineligible for appointment in this state.

(3) Under the law of this state, the conservator is ineligible for appointment in this state, and the transfer petition does not identify a replacement who is willing and eligible to serve in this state.

(4) This chapter is inapplicable under Section 1981.

(d) Promptly after the filing of a petition under subdivision (a), the court shall appoint an investigator under Section 1454. The investigator shall promptly commence a preliminary investigation of the conservatorship, which focuses on the matters described in subdivision (f).

(e) The court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subdivision (a).

(f) The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition filed under subdivision (a) unless any of the following occurs:

(1) The court determines that transfer of the proceeding would be contrary to the interests of the conservatee.

1 (2) The court determines that, under the law of the transferring 2 state, the conservator is ineligible for appointment in this state.

3 (3) The court determines that, under the law of this state, the 4 conservator is ineligible for appointment in this state, and the 5 transfer petition does not identify a replacement who is willing 6 and eligible to serve in this state.

7 (4) The court determines that this chapter is inapplicable under 8 Section 1981.

9 (g) If the court issues an order provisionally granting the 10 petition, the investigator shall promptly commence an investigation 11 under Section 1851.1.

12 (h) (1) Not later than 60 days after issuance of an order 13 provisionally granting the petition, the court shall determine 14 whether the conservatorship needs to be modified to conform to 15 the law of this state. The court may take any action necessary to 16 achieve compliance with the law of this state, including, but not 17 limited to, striking or modifying any conservator powers that are 18 not permitted under the law of this state.

19 (2) At the same time that it makes the determination required 20 by paragraph (1), the court shall review the conservatorship as 21 provided in Section 1851.1.

22 (3) The conformity determination and the review required by 23 this subdivision shall occur at a hearing, which shall be noticed as 24 provided in subdivision (b).

25 (i) (1) The court shall issue a final order accepting the 26 proceeding and appointing the conservator in this state upon 27 completion of the conformity determination and review required 28 by subdivision (h), or upon its receipt from the court from which 29 the proceeding is being transferred of a final order issued under 30 provisions similar to Section 2001 transferring the proceeding to 31 this state, whichever occurs later. In appointing a conservator under 32 this paragraph, the court shall comply with Section 1830.

33 (2) A transfer to this state does not become effective unless and 34 until the court issues a final order under paragraph (1). A 35 conservator may not take action in this state pursuant to a transfer 36 petition unless and until the transfer becomes effective and all of 37 the following steps have occurred:

38 (A) The conservator has taken an oath in accordance with 39 Section 2300.

40 (B) The conservator has filed the required bond, if any.

1 (C) The court has provided the information required by Section 2 1835 to the conservator.

3 (D) The conservator has filed an acknowledgment of receipt as 4 required by Section 1834.

5 (E) The clerk of the court has issued the letters of 6 conservatorship.

7 (3) Paragraph (2) does not preclude a person who has been 8 appointed as a temporary conservator pursuant to Chapter 3 9 (commencing with Section 2250) from taking action in this state 10 pursuant to the order establishing the temporary conservatorship.

11 (4) When a transfer to this state becomes effective, the 12 conservatorship is subject to the law of this state and shall 13 thereafter be treated as a conservatorship under the law of this 14 state. If a law of this state, including, but not limited to, Section 15 2356.5, mandates compliance with special requirements to exercise 16 a particular conservatorship power or take a particular step, the 17 conservator of a transferred conservatorship may not exercise that 18 power or take that step without first complying with those special 19 requirements.

20 (j) Except as otherwise provided by Section 1851.1, Chapter 3 21 (commencing with Section 1860), Chapter 9 (commencing with 22 Section 2650) of Part 4, and other law, when the court grants a 23 petition under this section, the court shall recognize a 24 conservatorship order from the other state, including the 25 determination of the conservatee's incapacity and the appointment 26 of the conservator.

27 (k) The denial by a court of this state of a petition to accept a 28 conservatorship transferred from another state does not affect the 29 ability of the conservator to seek appointment as conservator in 30 this state under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1800) of Part 31 3 if the court has jurisdiction to make an appointment other than 32 by reason of the provisional order of transfer.

33 2003. If a conservatorship is transferred under this article from 34 a court of this state to the court of a California tribe or from the 35 court of a California tribe to a court of this state, the order that 36 provisionally grants the transfer may expressly provide that 37 specified powers of the conservator will not be transferred.
38 Jurisdiction over the specified powers will be retained by the 39 transferring state and will not be included in the powers that are 40 granted to the conservator in the state that accepts the transfer.

Article 4. Registration and Recognition of Orders from Other States

2011. (a) If a conservator of the person has been appointed in another state and a petition for the appointment of a conservator of the person is not pending in this state, the conservator of the person appointed in the other state, after providing notice pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c), may register the conservatorship order in this state by filing certified copies of the order and letters of office, and proof of notice as required herein, together with a cover sheet approved by the Judicial Council, in the superior court of any appropriate county of this state.

(b) At least 15 days before registering a conservatorship in this state, the conservator shall provide notice of an intent to register to all of the following:

(1) The court supervising the conservatorship.

(2) Every person who would be entitled to notice of a petition for the appointment of a conservator in the state where the conservatorship is being supervised.

(3) Every person who would be entitled to notice of a petition for the appointment of a conservator in this state.

(c) Each notice provided pursuant to subdivision (b) shall prominently state that when a conservator acts pursuant to registration, the conservator is subject to the law of this state governing the action, including, but not limited to, all applicable procedures, and is not authorized to take any action prohibited by the law of this state. Except as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 2023, each notice shall also prominently state that the registration is effective only while the conservatee resides in another jurisdiction and does not authorize the conservator to take any action while the conservatee is residing in this state.

2012. (a) If a conservator of the estate has been appointed in another state and a petition for a conservatorship of the estate is not pending in this state, the conservator appointed in the other state, after providing notice pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c), may register the conservatorship order in this state by filing certified copies of the order and letters of office and of any bond, and proof of notice as required herein, together with a cover sheet approved by the Judicial Council, in the superior court of any

1 county of this state in which property belonging to the conservatee 2 is located.

3 (b) At least 15 days before registering a conservatorship in this 4 state, the conservator shall provide notice of an intent to register
5 to all of the following:

6 (1) The court supervising the conservatorship.

7 (2) Every person who would be entitled to notice of a petition 8 for the appointment of a conservator in the state where the 9 conservatorship is being supervised.

10 (3) Every person who would be entitled to notice of a petition
11 for the appointment of a conservator in this state.

12 (c) Each notice provided pursuant to subdivision (b) shall 13 prominently state that when a conservator acts pursuant to 14 registration, the conservator is subject to the law of this state 15 governing the action, including, but not limited to, all applicable 16 procedures, and is not authorized to take any action prohibited by 17 the law of this state. Except as provided in subdivision (c) of 18 Section 2023, each notice shall also prominently state that the 19 registration is effective only while the conservatee resides in 20 another jurisdiction and does not authorize the conservator to take 21 any action while the conservatee is residing in this state.

22 2013. (a) If a conservator of the person and estate has been 23 appointed in another state and a petition for a conservatorship of 24 the person, conservatorship of the estate, or conservatorship of the 25 person and estate is not pending in this state, the conservator 26 appointed in the other state, after providing notice pursuant to 27 subdivisions (b) and (c), may register the conservatorship order in 28 this state by filing certified copies of the order and letters of office 29 and of any bond, and proof of notice as required herein, together 30 with a cover sheet approved by the Judicial Council, in the superior 31 court of any appropriate county of this state.

32 (b) At least 15 days before registering a conservatorship in this 33 state, the conservator shall provide notice of an intent to register 34 to all of the following:

35 (1) The court supervising the conservatorship.

36 (2) Every person who would be entitled to notice of a petition 37 for the appointment of a conservator in the state where the 38 conservatorship is being supervised.

39 (3) Every person who would be entitled to notice of a petition
40 for the appointment of a conservator in this state.

(c) Each notice provided pursuant to subdivision (b) shall prominently state that when a conservator acts pursuant to registration, the conservator is subject to the law of this state governing the action, including, but not limited to, all applicable procedures, and is not authorized to take any action prohibited by the law of this state. Except as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 2023, each notice shall also prominently state that the registration is effective only while the conservatee resides in another jurisdiction and does not authorize the conservator to take any action while the conservatee is residing in this state.

2014. (a) Upon registration of a conservatorship order from another state, the conservator may, while the conservatee resides out of this state, exercise in any county of this state all powers authorized in the order of appointment except as prohibited under the laws of this state, including maintaining actions and proceedings in this state and, if the conservator is not a resident of this state, subject to any conditions imposed upon nonresident parties. When acting pursuant to registration, the conservator is subject to the law of this state governing the action, including, but not limited to, all applicable procedures, and is not authorized to take any action prohibited by the law of this state. If a law of this state, including, but not limited to, Section 2352, 2352.5, 2355, 2356.5, 2540, 2543, 2545, or 2591.5, or Article 2 (commencing with Section 1880) of Chapter 4 of Part 4, mandates compliance with special requirements to exercise a particular conservatorship power or take a particular step, the conservator of a registered conservatorship may not exercise that power or take that step without first complying with those special requirements.

(b) When subdivision (a) requires a conservator to comply with a law of this state that makes it necessary to obtain court approval or take other action in court, the conservator shall seek that approval or proceed as needed in an appropriate court of this state. In handling the matter, that court shall communicate and cooperate with the court that is supervising the conservatorship, in accordance with Sections 1984 and 1985.

(c) Subdivision (a) applies only when the conservatee resides out of this state. When the conservatee resides in this state, a conservator may not exercise any powers pursuant to a registration under this article.

1 (d) A court of this state may grant any relief available under 2 this chapter and other law of this state to enforce a registered order.

3 2015. (a) A third person who acts in good faith reliance on a 4 conservatorship order registered under this article is not liable to 5 any person for so acting if all of the following requirements are 6 satisfied:

7 (1) The conservator presents to the third person a file-stamped 8 copy of the registration documents required by Section 2011, 2012, 9 or 2013, including, but not limited to, the certified copy of the 10 conservatorship order.

11 (2) Each of the registration documents, including, but not limited 12 to, the conservatorship order and the file-stamped cover sheet, 13 appears on its face to be valid.

14 (3) The conservator presents to the third person a form approved 15 by the Judicial Council, in which the conservator attests that the 16 conservatee does not reside in this state and the conservator 17 promises to promptly notify the third person if the conservatee 18 becomes a resident of this state. The form shall also prominently 19 state that the registration is effective only while the conservatee 20 resides in another jurisdiction and does not authorize the 21 conservator to take any action while the conservatee is residing in 22 this state.

23 (4) The third person has not received any actual notice that the 24 conservatee is residing in this state.

25 (b) Nothing in this section is intended to create an implication 26 that a third person is liable for acting in reliance on a 27 conservatorship order registered under this article under 28 circumstances where the requirements of subdivision (a) are not 29 satisfied. Nothing in this section affects any immunity that may 30 otherwise exist apart from this section.

31 2016. (a) A file-stamped copy of the registration documents 32 required by Section 2011, 2012, or 2013 may be recorded in the 33 office of any county recorder in this state.

34 (b) A county recorder may charge a reasonable fee for 35 recordation under subdivision (a).

36 2017. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article:

37 (a) A conservatorship order of a court of a California tribe can 38 be registered under Section 2011, 2012, or 2013, regardless of 39 whether the conservatee resides in California.

(b) The effect of a conservatorship order of a court of a California tribe that is registered under Section 2011, 2012, or 2013 is not contingent on whether the conservatee resides in California.

(c) Paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 2015 do not apply to a conservatorship order of a court of a California tribe.

Article 5. Miscellaneous Provisions

2021. In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration shall be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it, consistent with the need to protect individual civil rights and in accordance with due process.

2022. This chapter modifies, limits, and supersedes the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (Title 15 (commencing with Section 7001) of the United States Code), but does not modify, limit, or supersede subdivision (c) of Section 101 of that act, which is codified as subdivision (c) of Section 7001 of Title 15 of the United States Code, or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in subdivision (b) of Section 103 of that act, which is codified as subdivision (b) of Section 7003 of Title 15 of the United States Code.

2023. (a) On or before January 1, 2016, the Judicial Council shall develop court rules and forms as necessary for the implementation of this chapter.

(b) The materials developed pursuant to this section shall include, but not be limited to, ~~both~~ all of the following:

(1) A cover sheet for registration of a conservatorship under Section 2011, 2012, or 2013. The cover sheet shall explain that a proceeding may not be registered under Section 2011, 2012, or 2013 if the proceeding relates to a minor. The cover sheet shall further explain that a proceeding in which a person is subjected to involuntary mental health care may not be registered under Section 2011, 2012, or 2013. The cover sheet shall require the conservator to initial each of these explanations. The cover sheet shall also prominently state that when a conservator acts pursuant to registration, the conservator is subject to the law of this state governing the action, including, but not limited to, all applicable

2 the law of this state. Except as provided in subdivision (c), the 3 cover sheet shall also prominently state that the registration is 4 effective only while the conservatee resides in another jurisdiction 5 and does not authorize the conservator to take any action while 6 the conservatee is residing in this state. Directly beneath these 7 statements, the cover sheet shall include a signature box in which 8 the conservator attests to these matters.

9 (2) The form required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of 10 Section 2015. If the Judicial Council deems it advisable, this form 11 may be included in the civil cover sheet developed under paragraph 12 (1).

13 (3) A form for providing notice of intent to register a proceeding 14 under Section 2011, 2012, or 2013.

15 (c) The materials prepared pursuant to this section shall be 16 consistent with Section 2017.

17 2024. (a) This chapter applies to conservatorship proceedings
18 begun on or after January 1, 2016.

19 (b) Articles 1, 3, and 4 and Sections 2021 and 2022 apply to 20 proceedings begun before January 1, 2016, regardless of whether 21 a conservatorship order has been issued.

22 Article 6. Federally Recognized Indian Tribe

23 2031. For the purposes of this chapter:

24 (a) “California tribe” means an Indian tribe with jurisdiction
25 that has tribal land located in California.

26 (b) “Indian tribe with jurisdiction” means a federally recognized 27 Indian tribe that has a court system that exercises jurisdiction over 28 proceedings that are substantially equivalent to conservatorship 29 proceedings.

30 (c) “Tribal land” means land that is, with respect to a specific 31 Indian tribe and the members of that tribe, “Indian country” as 32 defined in Section 1151 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

33 2032. Article 2 (commencing with Section 1991) does not 34 apply to a proposed conservatee who is a member of an Indian 35 tribe with jurisdiction.

36 2033. (a) If a petition for the appointment of a conservator has 37 been filed in a court of this state and a conservator has not yet been 38 appointed, any person entitled to notice of a hearing on the petition 39
40

1 may move to dismiss the petition on the grounds that the proposed 2 conservatee is a member of an Indian tribe with jurisdiction. The 3 petition shall state the name of the Indian tribe.

4 (b) If, after communicating with the named tribe, the court of 5 this state finds that the proposed conservatee is a member of an 6 Indian tribe with jurisdiction, it may grant the motion to dismiss 7 if it finds that there is good cause to do so. If the motion is granted, 8 the court may impose any condition the court considers just and 9 proper, including the condition that a petition for the appointment 10 of a conservator be filed promptly in the tribal court.

11 (c) In determining whether there is good cause to grant the 12 motion, the court may consider all relevant factors, including, but 13 not limited to, the following:

14 (1) Any expressed preference of the proposed conservatee.

15 (2) Whether abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the proposed 16 conservatee has occurred or is likely to occur and which state could 17 best protect the proposed conservatee from the abuse, neglect, or 18 exploitation.

19 (3) The length of time the proposed conservatee was physically
20 present in or was a legal resident of this or another state.

21 (4) The location of the proposed conservatee's family, friends,
22 and other persons required to be notified of the conservatorship
23 proceeding.

24 (5) The distance of the proposed conservatee from the court in 25 each state.

26 (6) The financial circumstances of the estate of the proposed 27 conservatee.

28 (7) The nature and location of the evidence.

29 (8) The ability of the court in each state to decide the issue
30 expeditiously and the procedures necessary to present evidence.

31 (9) The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and 32 issues in the proceeding.

33 (10) If an appointment were made, the court's ability to monitor
34 the conduct of the conservator.

35 (11) The timing of the motion, taking into account the parties' 36 and court's expenditure of time and resources.

37 (d) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the court shall not dismiss 38 the petition if the tribal court expressly declines to exercise its 39 jurisdiction with regard to the proposed conservatee.

40 SEC. 21. Section 2107 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

1 2107. (a) Unless limited by court order, when a court of this 2 state appoints a guardian or conservator of the person of a 3 nonresident, the appointee has the same powers and duties as a 4 guardian or conservator of the person of a resident while the 5 nonresident is in this state.

6 (b) When a court of this state appoints a guardian or conservator 7 of the estate of a nonresident, the appointee has, with respect to 8 the property of the nonresident within this state, the same powers 9 and duties as a guardian or conservator of the estate of a resident.
10 The responsibility of such a guardian or conservator with regard 11 to inventory, accounting, and disposal of the estate is confined to 12 the property that comes into the hands of the guardian or 13 conservator in this state.

15 2200. (a) The superior court has jurisdiction of guardianship 16 and conservatorship proceedings.

17 (b) Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1980) of Part 3 governs 18 which state has jurisdiction of a conservatorship proceeding.

19 SEC. 23. Section 2300 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

20 2300. Before the appointment of a guardian or conservator is 22 conservator under Section 2002, the guardian or conservator shall:

23 (a) Take an oath to perform the duties of the office according 24 to law. The oath obligates the guardian or conservator to comply 25 with the law of this state, as well as other applicable law, at all 26 times, in any location within or without the state. If the conservator 27 petitions for transfer of the conservatorship to another state 28 pursuant to Section 2001, the conservator shall continue to comply 29 with the law of this state until the court issues a final order 30 confirming the transfer and terminating the conservatorship 31 pursuant to Section 2001. The oath shall be attached to or endorsed 32 upon the letters.

33 (b) File the required bond if a bond is required.

34 SEC. 24. Section 2352 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

35 2352. (a) The guardian may establish the residence of the ward 36 at any place within this state without the permission of the court.
37 The guardian shall select the least restrictive appropriate residence 38 that is available and necessary to meet the needs of the ward, and 39 that is in the best interests of the ward.

1 (b) The conservator may establish the residence of the 2 conservatee at any place within this state without the permission 3 of the court. The conservator shall select the least restrictive 4 appropriate residence, as described in Section 2352.5, that is 5 available and necessary to meet the needs of the conservatee, and 6 that is in the best interests of the conservatee.

7 (c) If permission of the court is first obtained, a guardian or 8 conservator may establish the residence of a ward or conservatee 9 at a place not within this state. Notice of the hearing on the petition 10 to establish the residence of the ward or conservatee out of state, 11 together with a copy of the petition, shall be given in the manner 12 required by subdivision (a) of Section 1460 to all persons entitled 13 to notice under subdivision (b) of Section 1511 or subdivision (b) 14 of Section 1822.

15 (d) (1) An order under subdivision (c) relating to a ward shall 16 require the guardian either to return the ward to this state, or to 17 cause a guardianship proceeding or its equivalent to be commenced 18 in the place of the new residence, when the ward has resided in 19 the place of new residence for a period of four months or a longer 20 or shorter period specified in the order.

21 (2) An order under subdivision (c) relating to a conservatee 22 shall require the conservator to do one of the following when the 24 months or a longer or shorter period specified in the order:

25 (A) Return the conservatee to this state.

30 commenced in the other state.

31 (e) (1) The guardian or conservator shall file a notice of change 32 of residence with the court within 30 days of the date of the change.
33 The guardian or conservator shall include in the notice of change 34 of residence a declaration stating that the ward's or conservatee's 35 change of residence is consistent with the standard described in 36 subdivision (b).

37 (2) The guardian or conservator shall mail a copy of the notice
38 to all persons entitled to notice under subdivision (b) of Section 39 1511 or subdivision (b) of Section 1822 and shall file proof of 40 service of the notice with the court. The court may, for good cause,

1 waive the mailing requirement pursuant to this paragraph in order 2 to prevent harm to the conservatee or ward.

3 (3) If the guardian or conservator proposes to remove the ward 4 or conservatee from his or her personal residence, except as 5 provided by subdivision (c), the guardian or conservator shall mail 6 a notice of his or her intention to change the residence of the ward 7 or conservatee to all persons entitled to notice under subdivision 8 (b) of Section 1511 and subdivision (b) of Section 1822. In the 9 absence of an emergency, that notice shall be mailed at least 15 10 days before the proposed removal of the ward or conservatee from 11 his or her personal residence. If the notice is served less than 15
